

Resume

Summary of Qualifications

Taught Spiritual Parenting classes for parents planning, expecting, or raising children.

Taught parent education and child development courses at Santa Fe Community College, preschools and elementary schools.

Provided activities and a newsletter to assist parents in teaching their own children at home, as parent educator in an elementary school.

Offered workshops for students and teachers in multicultural education, conflict resolution and global perspective as a self-employed consultant.

Worked with students K-12 and adults as Public Education Coordinator for Alachua County Public Works, providing educational presentations and tours for the Office of Waste Alternatives. Wrote articles, ads, and press releases.

Developed the concept for Sustainable World, an educational program based on the Earth Charter.

Organized Tools for Schools, a reusable resource center where teachers shop at no cost for materials donated by local businesses and individuals, with the Alachua County Office of Waste Alternatives.

Worked with the Florida Museum of Natural History on projects such as Trashformations: The Art of Recycling art competition and EarthQuest: The Challenge Begins museum exhibit.

Taught computer skills to people getting off welfare and going to work at Santa Fe Community College.

Education

Masters in Elementary Education	Lesley College Cambridge, MA	1972
Bachelor of Arts, Psychology	Simmons College Boston, MA	1969